

Love Will Prevail

In the beauty of holiness gentle and strong
We live in obedience singing God's Song
Walking in unending deeds that are done
Unseen, unpraised, but loved

Love will prevail love will prevail,
God's love will prevail His love will prevail

The Lord God is over the sheep of his flock
Guarding our safety while keeping the watch
Knowing the wonderful plans for his own
Who've embraced His Son of love

Love will prevail love will prevail,
God's love will prevail His love will prevail

Seeking God's righteousness seeking His face
Needing His intimate love
We are strangers and aliens living His Word
Singing the Savior's song

How do we reach them who will believe
Each of them wounded some are deceived
Open their hearts Lord and help them receive
As we sow Your seed in Love

Love will prevail love will prevail
God's love will prevail His love will prevail

Love will prevail love will prevail
God's love will prevail
His love will prevail
God's love will prevail

Trust God

Trust God, when there's no way out and his will for you is hard to bear
Trust God, when the storms of doubt erode your faith in unanswered prayer
He is your Lord, your faithful friend, He'll see you through until the end
You can trust in the Lord

Trust God, when you've been forsaken, afraid to face the wasted years
Trust God, when the world has taken the best you had and left you tears
He knows your pain He hears your prayer, He bore your shame He will repair
You can trust in the Lord

Give your heart to Him, make Him Lord of all
He's your strength and hope
He is the way, He is the truth, He is the life

Trust God when your body fails you, when pain is real, the grave is near Trust God when fear surrounds you believe His word your God is here
His word is true he will not leave. He loves you so, you must believe
You can trust in the Lord God almighty
You can trust in the Lord.
You can trust in the Lord

Seek God's Face In Prayer

God is faithful He is mighty seek His face in prayer
With decisions small or weighty seek God's face in prayer
When all hope has disappeared
And He is all that stands between you and your fear
Seek God's face in prayer, seek His face in prayer

In the midst of celebration seek God's face in prayer
When in trials and tribulation seek God's face in prayer
In the middle or at the start
Give the Lord your undivided mind and heart
Seek God's face in prayer seek His face in prayer

The Lord of all creation and of life
Worship Him honor Him
Lift up your voice in praise and
Seek God's face in prayer seek His face in prayer

When you feel that you are able seek God's face in prayer
When you're feeling weak and feeble seek God's face in prayer
Seek His favor and His grace
In the heart of God you find a resting place
Seek God's face in prayer, seek His face in prayer

When all hope has disappeared
And He is all that stands between you and your fear
Seek God's face in prayer, seek His face in prayer

On the Road Alone

I spend my daytime wandering the nighttime I spend alone
Caught in a world unraveling and searching to find a home
I'm on a road that's lonely and cold and long
And I'm on that road alone

So many people all around but they always turn away
No one will look at me are they afraid what they might see
How life can be when ones I need
They don't need me

So where do I find love
In a world so full of blindness
On the road alone

I don't know why
Why there have to be so many on this road
We're not unkind, and God knows how we try
I only know that when I am remembering the days gone by
I always start to cry.

But there is hope inside of me and dreams that I keep alive
A place where love is real for me and I really can survive
Then I'll be home with love in the world I'll find my peace of mind
But 'til that time

Where do I find love in a world so full of fear
Where do I find love a heart sincere
Where do I find love when no one's near me
On the road so cold so tired
On the road so undesired
On the road alone

Deeper Than Words

The joy of laughter, the tears of sorrow
The thrill in triumph, the agony of suffering

The face of new life, the power of human touch
A kiss in friendship, a father's tender handling

When I try, to describe, or to say in song the things I see
I try and I try - But they're deeper than words can go

Hope in forgiveness, the feeling of new found faith
The depth of emotion, the promise of unbroken love

When I try, to describe, or to say in song the things I see
I try and I try - But they're deeper than words can go

I try, and I've tried, to say the words that move the soul
It's a prayer, to share, the things I feel the things I know
Like a fire, a desire, to find the deep that calls to deep
So I try, and I try

To say how much I need You
And all the ways I love You
They're deeper than words can go
Like a sacrificing lover and love that lasts forever
They're deeper than words can go.
Deeper than words can go.
